RULES FOR FOLLOWING THE SEMINAR

The Seminar will be organized on Zoom and recorded. – Access is provided on the following link:

For security reasons, we do not post the link on this program, we will send you the link once you register.

The meeting will open as of 9 a.m. in order for the attendees to enter. Only the link is needed to enter the Seminar. No downloading of software is required. To solve technical problems please contact jesus.migallon@cidalia.es

In order to ensure the seminar runs optimally with room for debate and reflection on the issues involved, we ask you to follow these rules for participation:

- a. The seminar aims to present the protocol, algorithm and system of indicators for detecting hate speech in social media. We recommend reading the various reports on the project that have been published at <http://alrecoresponse.eu/en/project/>
- b. The seminar will open in time to check that all of the participants have been able to connect and comply with the appropriate technical conditions. As of 9:00 a.m. the session will open and we ask that participants connect at least 20-30 minutes before the scheduled starting time in order to handle any technical difficulties participants may have.
- c. From 9:20 a.m. and until the end of the introduction and welcome, the room will be blocked for security reasons. Those who join the meeting during that period will be kept in the waiting room. The meeting room shall be unblocked once the introduction and welcome have been given. The organizer of the session will admit participants to the round table at that time.
- d. Provided the participants' connections are adequate, it is recommended that the videos be left on to enhance the seminar experience.
- e. For your participation during the debate, you must use the Zoom chat tool to request the floor from the moderator who will assign turns for the floor and manage the time allotments of the debate and in general.
- f. The organizers reserve the right to mute and/or remove any participant not following the established rules or whose interventions are found offensive or improper.
